Minutes were reviewed and accepted as presented.

Announcements/ Team Management Report (JMG)

Sally Boening has stepped down from the Management Team.

Last Sunday he and Ditte drove to Washington DC for the Scott Daniels fundraiser, which was a nice event and relatively successful.

Monday, they attended a fundraiser at the Wine Merchant in Findlay, Tuesday they were at the Williams County Fair and then a Town Hall in Bryan which got great coverage in the Blade and in the Kenton Times. And then the previous day there was a fundraiser at the Kart's in Sylvania, which was a nice event. The next fundraiser would be at the Westrick's in Sylvania.

JMG commended the group who have been working on the letters to the editors, who are doing an outstanding job.

The Harrison Day Rally was planned for the next day in Perrysburg, people needed to attend.

Nancy Larson said Tahree Lane did a great job at a TMA event at the Pinnacle when she mentioned the political situation in District 5 and JMG thanked her for that.

EVENT SCHEDULING (Cindy Rimmelin)

Cindy reported that she is getting the list of events out 2 weeks in advance and asked if anyone was looking for any other information and if they were all getting the information that they needed.

We will be participating in the Perrysburg parade on 9/15 starts at 10:00 and should gather at the Democratic booth which should be at 2nd Street after the parade.

Ditte reported that town halls are being scheduled in each county for Bryan on the 11th, Maumee on the 12th, in Ada on Oct. 3 and in Celina, in Napoleon and then in Wyandotte coming up. She said that each one will have a theme for the topic of discussion, such as health care, opioid addiction, etc. It was mentioned that maybe other topics could be organized labor, immigration and others for down the road.

The meeting in Defiance at Kissners on September 24th is a Town Hall, not a fundraiser as originally posted in the minutes.
